

Sebastián Agell Sastre-1953

An artist with more than thirty years of artistic career. He studied plastic arts with outstanding teachers in several prestigious schools in his country.

He has been awarded numerous, national as well as international, prizes.

He is in possession of the "Great distinction of Engraving Master" by the Fouveau Academy of Arts and Philosophy in France.

He has worked as an art critic for six years for a prestigious national newspaper.

He has presided over juries in various art competitions.

His own particular style is in constant evolution.

His artistic style is unique, personal and unmistakable.

He expresses himself through sculpture, engraving, oil, watercolour painting and other techniques

His work is destined for great artistic analysts, investors, art collectors and exclusive circles.

He's been the Headmaster at a Fine Arts academy.

His works have been present in more than 100 national and international exhibitions.

You can find examples of his work in private collections, museums and the Spanish royal family collection.

He's currently devoted to Art and looking for an international agent.

A DVD will be mailed upon request without obligation.